ROOSEVELT IN THE RACE TO A FINISH

In Letter to Seven Republican Governors Modestly Says He Will Accept Nomination.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Feb. 26.—"I will accept the nomination for president if it is tendered me and I will adhere to this decision until the convention has expressed its preference," is Col. Theodore Roosevelt's reply to the letter of seven republican governors asking him to stand for nomination.

The eagerly waited for reply was given out last night at Colonel Roosevelt's offices here during his absence on a trip to Boston. It was unexpectedly brief, but definite. It follows:

Realizes Responsibility.

"New York, Feb. 24, 1912.—Gentlemen: I deeply appreciate your letter and I realize fully the heavy responsibility it puts upon me, expressing as it does the carefully considered convictions of the men elected by popular vote to stand as the heads of government in their several states. I absolutely agree with you that this matter is not one to be decided with any reference to the personal preferences or interests of any man, but purely from the standpoint of the interests of the people as a whole.

"I will accept the nomination for president if it is tendered to me and I will adhere to this decision until the convention has expressed its preference.

"One of the chief principles for which I have stood and for which I now stand and which I have always endeavored and always shall endeavor to reduce to action, is the genuine rule of the people and, therefore, I hope that so far as possible the people may be given the chance through the primaries to express their preference as to who shall be the nominee of the republican presidential convention.

"Very truly yours,

Theodore Roosevelt.

"The Hon. W. E. Glasscock, Governor of the State of West Virginia, Charleston, W. Va.

"The Hon. Chester Aldrich, Governor of the State of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.

"The Hon. Robert B. Bass, Governor of New Hampshire, Concord, N. H.

"The Hon. Joseph M. Carey, Governor of the State of Wyoming, Cheyenne, Wyo.

"The Hon. Charles S. Osborn, Governor of the State of Michigan, Lansing, Mich.

"The Hon. W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

ernor of the State of Missouri, Jeffer-
